EMPLOYEE Spotlight

Emily has been with the City of Seneca/Seneca Light & Water since 1988, beginning her employment in the engineering department. She transferred to operations on the water distribution and sewer collection systems, moving up to a supervisory role before she was promoted to Water/Wastewater Superintendent. In that position, Emily oversees the largest department in the city's utility system. She has lived in the Keowee community of Oconee county all her life, and in her spare time, loves to camp, fish, and bear hunt.

2022 CITY OF SENECA SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS NAMED AT AWARDS CEREMONY

Former Seneca HS grads travel to Seneca to award additional scholarship

Each year The City of Seneca awards a $1,000 scholarship to two Seneca High School students who meet certain scholastic criteria.

This year, Mayor Pro Tem Ronnie O'Kelley was on hand at the 2022 Seneca High School Awards Ceremony on May 13th to unveil this year's recipients: Ethan Erick Ibarra and Gracie Victoria Gardner.

Congratulations, Ethan and Gracie!

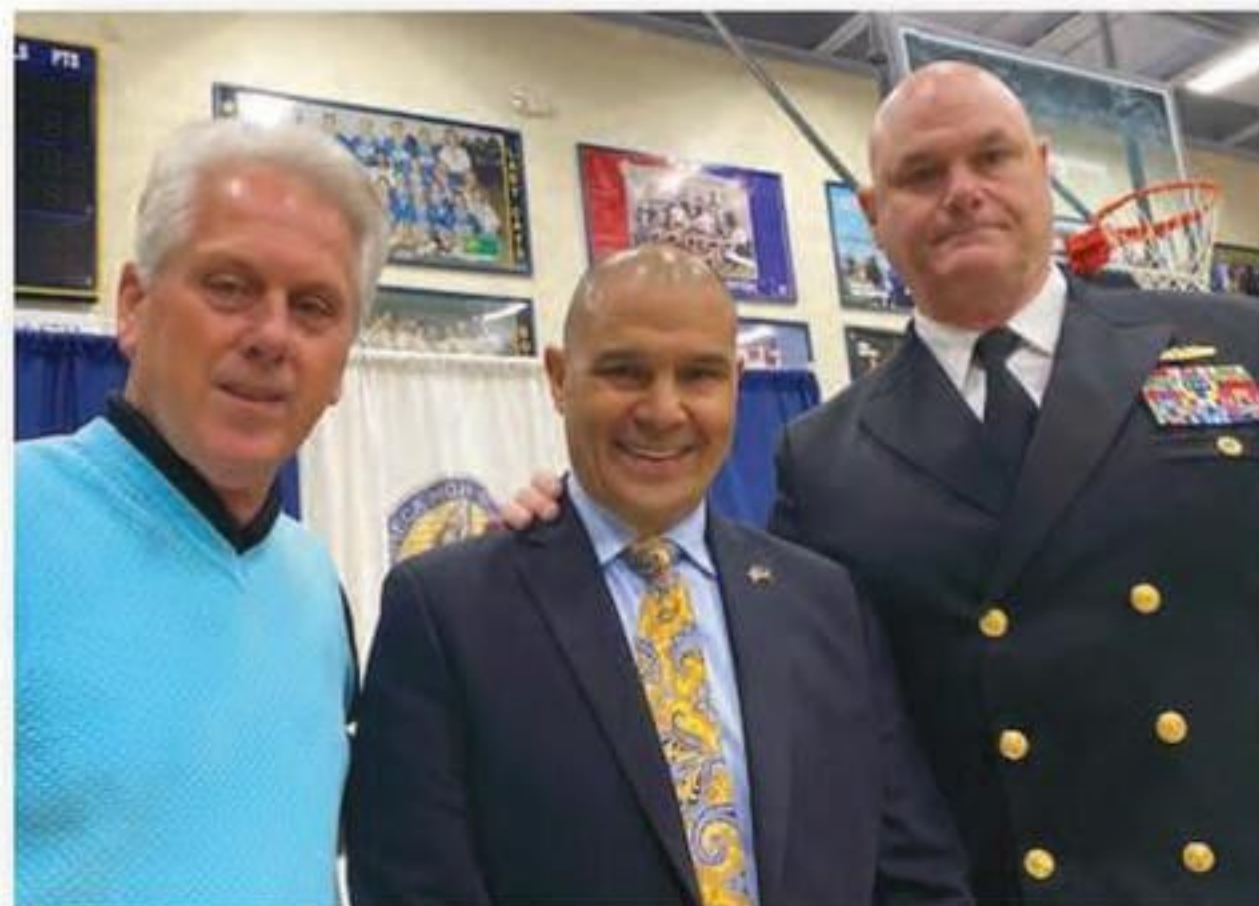

Also present at the event were former Seneca HS graduates Phil Stephens and Captain Doug Stephens who traveled back to Seneca to award a scholarship in honor of their mother.
