DOWNTOWN SENECA MERCHANT ASSOCIATION PRESENTS A GROVE OF CHRISTMAS TREES

A grove of Christmas trees sponsored by the Seneca Downtown Merchants Association was one of the new additions to the Magical Musical Holiday Light Show this past year. Merchants participated by decorating a special tree for competition and visitors to the light show were encouraged to vote for their favorite tree. Over 3,000 votes were cast online, and the winner was Cardamom Bake Shop!

YOU CAN NEVER HAVE TOO MANY CHRISTMAS TREES!
Cardamom Bake Shop's entry (right) won the approval of visitors to the Magical Musical Light Show who voted online for their favorite.
CONGRATULATIONS!

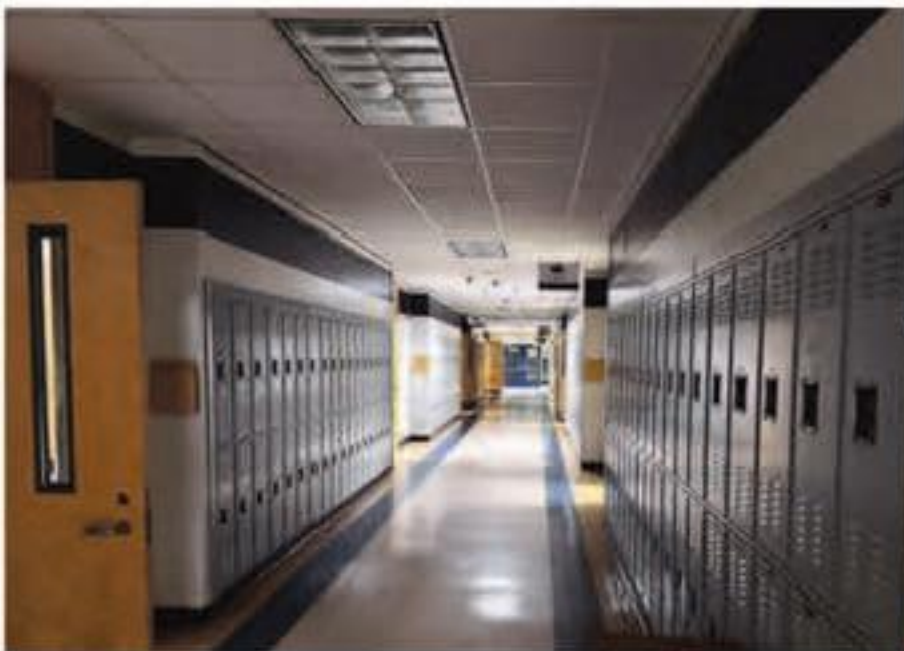

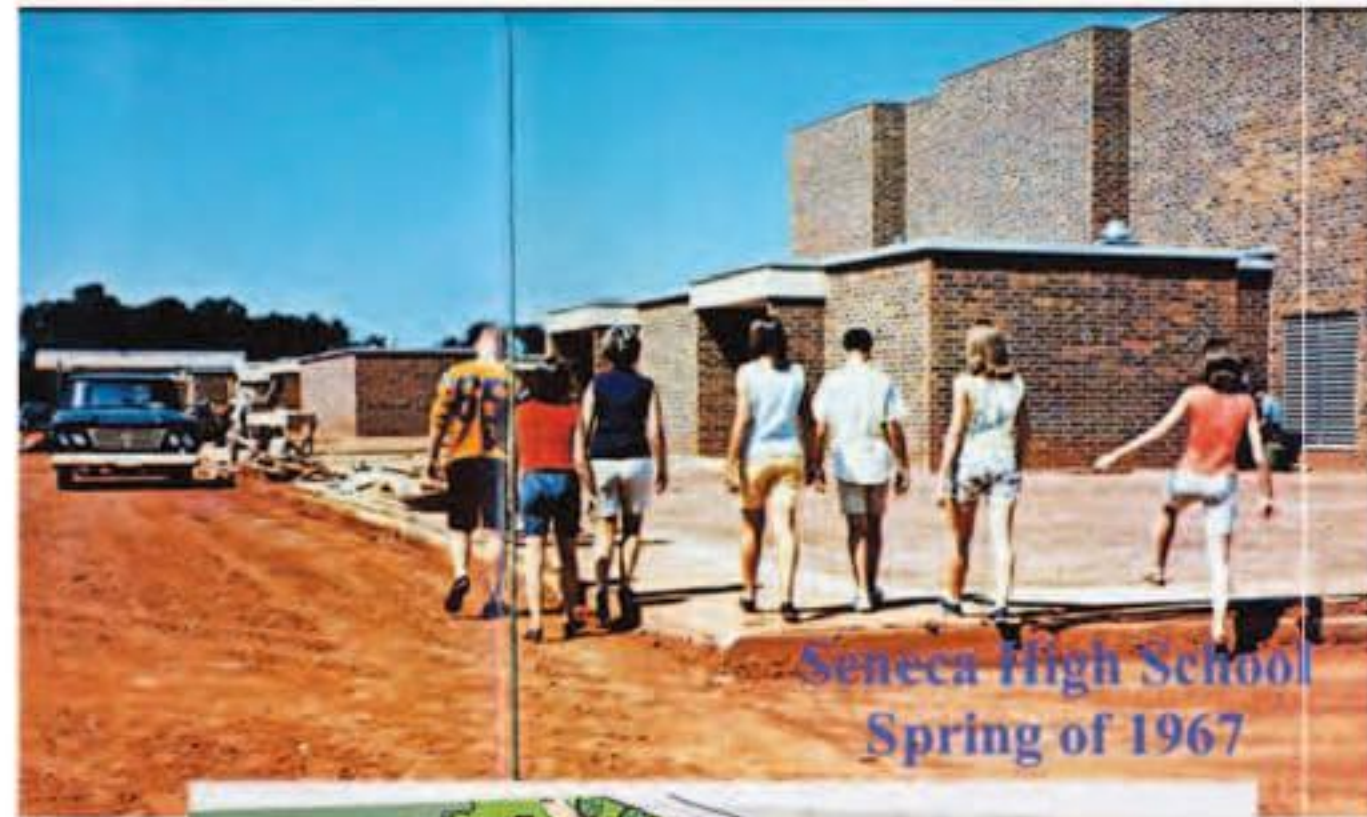

It's happening in Seneca!

One last lookfinal walk-through of former Seneca High School draws big crowds

Before the City of Seneca begins the transformation of the old Seneca High School/Seneca Middle School into a new recreational facility for the area, the halls were opened to anyone who wanted to say a fond farewell to the building. Memories and stories of days gone by were shared, as well as laughter and even a few tears. The Tim Howard Gym will remain intact but much of the surrounding structure will be demolished.

IF EVERYONE IN OUR SCHOOL HAD YOUR Attitude WHAT KIND OF PLACE WOULD IT BE?
