New Employee Spotlight Landon Moseley, Athletic Director

I am a proud Seneca native with a deep love for all things sports. As a senior at Clemson University - die-hard Tiger fan - I've grown up surrounded by a community that values teamwork, pride, and tradition. I look forward to bringing that same energy and passion to the Seneca Rec, working hard to create a home-like atmosphere not just for the kids, but for the families and the entire community of Seneca.

RECENT VISITORS TO Seneca

On hand for the Blue Ridge High School Reunion recently held at the Lunney House was Mr. Louie McKinney, Sr., (center in photo), retired U.S. Deputy Marshal. Mr. McKinney is known for his long career with the U.S. Marshals Service. He was the first Black director (2001) of the Marshals, and guarded John Hinckley, Jr. after the assassination attempt on Ronald Reagan. Also shown with Mr. McKinney: Left, Seneca resident Daryl Ellerby, II; and, Seneca Mayor Pro Tem Ronnie O'Kelley.

Right: Seneca Mayor Pro Tem Ronnie O'Kelley, Mayor Dan Alexander, and Deputy Brock were on hand to greet Clemson University's Rally Cats dance team at Jazz on the Alley on Aug 28.
